

FRANKFURTER BUCHMESSE

This autumn at Frankfurter Buchmesse, it's all about books, exciting topics and captivating content for the international publishing and media industry and for book fans from around the world. This year will mark the 70th book fair. It is the most important international trading post for content, the centre of the media world and a major cultural event. This year's Guest of Honour, Georgia, invites visitors to discover its diverse literary and cultural heritage.
