T01	Our Childhood (aka Historic Housing Estates Tour) Every Saturday 2:30pm; Duration: 2 hours Minimum participants: 6 In early days, the architectural design of public housing estates had many paths connecting various blocks. The common space of the estates was essentially our Neverland by imagination. The discovery of 'Secret newfound land' was mostly out of our fantasy. However, there was always exceptional. Kelvin, another public housing kid, had genuinely discovered a kung-fu master, a military base, the 'King's' calligraphy, and a cursed boulder in his adventure. Apart from the aforementioned discoveries, we will also visit the rainbow playground, mysterious light wells and a rural village located downtown. Kelvin will also treat you with egg-tart when telling you the unique culture of the Hong Kong showbiz.	202
T02	The Hidden Treasures of Central and Sheung Wan (aka Let's Go Shopping) Every Saturday 3:00pm; Duration: 2 hours Minimum participants: 6 Hong Kong was once a renowned shopping paradise. Good stuff with a reasonable price was the incentive of a Hong Kong trip. Diversity of roadside shops not only pleased the tourists, but also a fond part of our memory. However, with the soaring rental, only big brand chain stores can be found in the main street. The old and character shops are surviving persistently at the edge of the city. Many traces of Hong Kong lifestyle from the 19th Century and Post-war period can be found along the trail. The historical significance of the area speaks itself.	208
T03	A Journey by Sea : Coastal Heritage Tour (aka Seaside Stories) Every Saturday 12:00pm, Duration: 4 hours Minimum participants: 6 Seaside Stories are stories of our guide, Celeste and her two families. She is the third generation of a small sized shipyard at Shau Kei Wan, currently one of a few old shipyards repairs small fishermen's junk boats. After a brief small junk boat ride and Tam Kung Temple visit, Celeste will bring the guests to her shipyard and tell the story of her father and grandfather. It's also a glimpse of history and development of Hong Kong junk boat building industry. Following the shipyard visit, guests will be taken to the former Lyemun Barracks for the stories of the three declared monuments. Guests will be treated with a drink to appreciate the breath-taking seaview.	315
T04	Find the Lost: Seeking Nine Dragons Every Saturday 9am or 2pm; Duration: 4 hours Minimum participants: 6 The tour walks you through the significant parts of Kowloon history. Follow the trace of the Heavenly Goddess' descendents and the royal family of the Song Dynasty, as well as the relics of the most influential settlement in Kowloon area scattered in Wong Tai Sin and Kowloon City over 600 years. The tour will visit the old urban area of To Kwa Wan where the landscape, shops and flats have frozen for almost half a century. Apart from walking, guests will also travel on different forms of public transportation to	404
T02	Lost but Found: Origin of Fragrant Harbour Every Saturday 8am; Duration: 4 hours Minimum participants: 6 There were many stories about why Hong Kong (literally "Fragrant Harbour") is so named. One of which was about a stream with fragrant water. The tour starts at the Hong Kong "must-go must-see" –the Peak. We will take a almost-forgotten heritage walk there instead of spending time at the crowded Peak Tower. Then we turn to Lugard Road at the Peak, the most scenic promenade at 400m above, built a century ago, with bountiful flora of species and historic monuments en route. A Peak Tram ride is promised. After a downslope hiking at Pokfulam Reservoir, meal will be served at the Pok Fu Lam village.	404
