

4D3N Busan & Gyeongju

from RM2,139 per person

KORPUS3-02G

Busan, South Korea's second-largest city, captivates with its golden beaches, lively culture, and bustling ports. Visitors can wander through Haeundae Beach, explore the colorful Gamcheon Culture Village, and savor fresh seafood at Jagalchi Fish Market. With its scenic coastal views, vibrant urban life, and rich traditions, Busan perfectly blends modern energy with natural beauty.

Gyeongju, known as "the museum without walls," was the ancient capital of the Silla dynasty. Its royal tombs, historic temples, serene parks, and cultural relics offer a fascinating journey through Korea's history, making it an essential destination for history and culture enthusiasts.
