Day 1 Dinner	Arrival – Riyadh After visa and immigration formalities our representative will meet and escort the guests to their air-conditioned vehicle for the transfer to the hotel. Overnight in Riyadh.
Day 2 Breakfast & Dinner	Riyadh Breakfast at the hotel. We begin our tour of mystic Riyadh with a visit to the National Museum . A centre of learning and discovery, the museum offers a comprehensive overview of Arabian civilization – from prehistory to the modern era. We then proceed to the nearby Murabba Palace (outside visit only, as it is under renovation), one of the city's historic landmarks. Lunch on your own. In the afternoon, we continue with a visit to Masmak Fort and its museum, which highlights the Al-Saud family's conquest of Arabia. The fort was built in 1895 during the reign of Abdullah bin Rashid to serve as a military garrison. In 1902, King Abdulaziz, founder of modern Saudi Arabia, captured the fort – marking the birth of the Third Saudi State. To end the day, we'll pass by Kingdom Tower and Al Faisaliah Tower before returning to the hotel. Dinner and overnight in Riyadh.
Day 3 Breakfast & Dinner	Riyadh – Hail (623km) : by Train Breakfast at your hotel and check-out. This morning, we depart for Ha'il , a drive of approximately 6 hours. We expect to arrive just in time for lunch (on your own). Known for its warm hospitality, Ha'il has long been considered the cultural home of Saudi Arabia's poets and writers. Interestingly, many early European explorers – including Charles Doughty, Lady Blunt, Charles Huber, and Julius Euting – passed through Ha'il in the 19th century. Upon arrival, we check in. Since we'll arrive in the early afternoon, we'll visit A'Arif Fort and a nearby heritage museum . Later, we'll explore the traditional market , where you can discover local delicacies. If time permitted, we'll also pass by the Ha'il Regional Museum to admire its collection. Dinner and overnight in Ha'il.

Day 4 Breakfast & Dinner	Hail – Jubbah – AlUla (580km) This morning, we begin our journey to Jubbah , located on an ancient lake. These drawings remain visible today on several sandstone outcrops, such as Jebel Umm Sanman . Another significant carving site in Ha'il Province - Shuwaymis , were listed as UNESCO World Heritage sites in 2015 for their numerous petroglyphs and rich inscriptions. The region between Ha'il and Al-Ula offers some of the best desert experiences in the world. On our way, we pass through the famous Nefud Al Kabir Desert , which means the "Great Extent of Sand Dunes." It spans 290 kilometers in length, 225 kilometers in width, and covers an area of 103,600 square kilometers. Lunch at leisure. We continue our journey to the famous Al-Ula area. Its striking Green Dome rises above the tombs of Prophet Muhammad and early Islamic leaders Abu Bakr and Umar. The Masjid al-Qiblatain (Qiblatain Mosque) is known as the site where the Prophet Muhammad received the command to change the direction of prayer to Mecca.
