Then, explore the National Folk Museum, located on the eastern side of Gyeongbokgung Palace, which exhibits Korean folklife artifacts. Breakfast

After breakfast and check out from the hotel, you will be taken on a half-day tour to the Korean Demilitarized Zone (DMZ)*. You will visit Imjingak Park, located near the DMZ, which serves as a symbol of the Korean War and the ongoing division between North and South Korea. The park is a poignant reminder of the conflict and a place of hope for eventual reunification. Next, you will visit the Unification Bridge, symbolizing the hope for future unification of the Koreas. Proceed to the DMZ Theater and Exhibition Hall, a unique museum located within the civilian access control line. The exhibition hall displays propaganda leaflets used during the Korean War, military letters, bayonets, earthenware found in the DMZ, and stuffed birds. Afterwards, visit the 3rd Infiltration Tunnel and Dora Observatory, a unique place offering a rare glimpse into one of the world's most heavily militarized borders. Your last stop before returning to Seoul will be Dorasan Station, a powerful symbol of peace and reunification aspirations on the Korean Peninsula.
