Salwa palace is the largest standing structure in the citadel and of significant importance as the home of Kings & Heroes. The city of At-Turaif was built with adobe mud and other natural materials in the 1700s and features courtyards, alleyways and towers that showcase quintessential Najdi architecture and tell the story of a traditional Saudi way of life. Under UNESCO guidelines, the mud-brick city has been restored to exhibit materials and artifacts from the Kingdom's Royal, social and cultural past, taking visitors on a comprehensive journey through Saudi history. Visit Al-Masmak Fortress, a vast clay and mud-brick citadel that witnessed the birth of a kingdom, serves as a proud reminder of Saudi Arabia's storied history. In 1902, King Abdulaziz captured the fortress and took control of Riyadh (his ancestral home) after having lived in exile in Kuwait. From this fortress, Abdulaziz Al Saud conquered and united the different kingdoms and provinces that make up the Saudi nation as we know it today. After a stop at Al Zal traditional flea market, move towards the National Museum for a detailed information about the Arabian Peninsula. Stop at Kingdom Tower for photos, the tallest building in Riyadh and enjoy the view from the top. In the evening, return to the hotel and overnight in Riyadh.
